Newspaper Policies

The publisher reserves the right to refuse any advertising, including the right to do so after the ad has been accepted for publication but before publication occurs.

Position requests are never guaranteed, however, every effort will be made to honor position requests.

Advertisements partially or completely composed, but cancelled before publication will be charged according to composition time involved and materials used.

Advertisers are responsible for checking advertisements on first insertion. Vernon Publishing, Inc. shall only be liable for mistakes in the first insertion. Vernon Publishing, Inc. shall not be liable for slight changes or typographical errors that do not lessen the value of the advertisement. The publisher's liability for other errors or omissions in connection with an advertisement is strictly limited to publication of the advertisement in any subsequent issue or refund of any monies paid for the advertisement.

Bills are mailed at the end of the month. The advertiser is expected to pay by the 10th of the month. Accounts are considered overdue the first of the following month, and may be turned over to a collection agency.

Advertising will be billed in 1/4 inch height increments. There is a 2-inch minimum on all display and display classified advertising.

The advertiser and/or advertising agency agrees to defend and indemnify the publisher against any and all liability, loss or expense arising from claims of libel, unfair competition, unfair trade practices, infringement of trademarks, copyrights, trade names, patents, or proprietary rights or violation of rights of privacy, resulting from the publication of the advertiser's advertisement.

Advertiser will be provided one tearsheet of each advertisement free of charge upon request. Additional tearsheets are available at actual cost of the tearsheet plus delivery.

Advertisements created by the publisher are not considered a work for hire and the publisher retains the copyright.
